SCHEDULE

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT made this eleventh day of April, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, between Thomas Kneen, Alexander Hill, Robert Clucas, and Llewellyn Stanley Kneale, surviving trustees under the will of Henry Bloom Noble, late of Villa Marina, in the borough of Douglas, Esquire, deceased, (hereinafter called "Noble's Trustees") of the one part; and His Excellency The Right Honourable George Fitz-Roy Henry, Baron Raglan, C.B., Lieutenant-Governor of the Isle of Man (hereinafter called "The Lieutenant-Governor") of the other part.

Whereas under the will of the said Henry Bloom Noble, probate whereof was granted on the tenth day of June, 1903, and in the events which have happened Noble's Trustees hold certain moneys upon trust for such charitable uses or purposes as Noble's Trustees in their absolute and uncontrolled discretion think fit.

And whereas Noble's Trustees have agreed with the Lieutenant-Governor to grant out of the said trust moneys the sum of twenty thousand pounds in order to further education in agriculture and rural industries:

And whereas a Bill intituled "The Agriculture and Rural Industries Bill" is about to be introduced by the Lieutenant-Governor into the Legislature:

Now this Agreement witnesseth that Noble's Trustees agree with the Lieutenant-Governor that if the said Bill be passed by the Legislature in a form which Noble's Trustees shall approve of and shall receive the Royal Assent, Noble's Trustees shall, at the time fixed by the said Bill, pay to the Board of Agriculture to be established by the said Bill the sum of twenty thousand pounds for the purposes hereinbefore named.

In witness whereof the parties hereto have subscribed their names this the day, month, and year first before written.

Signed by Noble's Trustees in presence of
Alfred H. Tyson,
52, Atholl St., Douglas.

T KNEEN.
ALEX. HILL.
ROBERT CLUCAS.
LI. KNEALE.

Signed by the Lieutenant-Governor in presence of
B.E. Sargeaunt,
Treasurer of the Isle of Man.

RAGLAN.
