INCOME TAX (RETIREMENT BENEFIT SCHEMES) ACT 1978

Received Royal Assent: 31 May 1978
Passed: 20 June 1978
Commenced: 6 April 1978¹

AN ACT to provide for the tax treatment of occupational pension schemes.

1 Conditions for approval of schemes

[P1970/24/19]

- (1) The Assessor shall not approve any retirement benefits scheme for the purpose of this Act unless the scheme satisfies all of the conditions set out in subsection (2).
- (2) The said conditions are —
 - (a) that the scheme is bona fide established for the sole purpose of providing the relevant benefits in respect of service as an employee, being benefits payable to, or to the surviving spouse or civil partner, children or dependants or personal representatives of, the employee,¹
 - (b) that the scheme is recognised by the employer and the employees to whom it relates, and that every employee who is, or has a right to be, a member of the scheme has been given written particulars of all essential features of the scheme which concern him,
 - (c) that there is a person resident in the Island who will be responsible for the discharge of all duties imposed on the administrator of the scheme under this Act,
 - (d) that the employer is a contributor to the scheme,
 - (e) that the scheme is established in connection with some trade or undertaking carried on in the Island by a person resident in the Island,

¹ See section 17(2) and paragraph 2 of Schedule 3.

- (f) that in no circumstances, whether during the subsistence of the scheme or later, can any amount be paid by way of repayment of an employee's contributions under the scheme.
- (3) Subject to subsection (1), the Assessor shall approve a retirement benefits scheme for the purpose of this Act if the scheme satisfies all of the conditions in this subsection, that is —
- (a) that any benefit for an employee is a pension on retirement, at a specified age not earlier than 60, and not later than 70, which does not exceed one-sixtieth of the employee's final remuneration for each year of service up to a maximum of 40,²
- (b) that any benefit for any surviving spouse or civil partner of an employee is a pension payable on his death after retirement such that the amount payable to the surviving spouse or civil partner by way of pension does not exceed two-thirds of any pension or pensions payable to the employee,³
- (c) that no other benefits are payable under the scheme,
- (d) that no pension is capable in whole or in part of surrender, commutation or assignment, except so far as the scheme allows an employee on retirement to obtain, by commutation of his pension, a lump sum or sums not exceeding in all three-eighths of his final remuneration for each year of service up to a maximum of 40.⁴

The conditions set out in subsection (2) and in this subsection are referred to in this Act as “the prescribed conditions”.

- (3A) If in the opinion of the Assessor the facts concerning any scheme or its administration cease to warrant the continuance of his approval of the scheme, he may at any time by notice in writing to the administrator withdraw his approval on such grounds, and from such date (which shall not be earlier than the date when those facts first ceased to warrant the continuance of the approval) as may be specified in the notice.⁵
- (4) Where an alteration has been made in a retirement benefits scheme, no approval given as regards the scheme before the alteration shall apply after the date of the alteration unless the alteration has been approved by the Assessor.
- (5) For the purpose of determining whether a retirement benefits scheme, so far as it relates to a particular class or description of employees, satisfies or continues to satisfy the prescribed conditions that scheme shall be considered in conjunction with any other retirement benefits scheme or schemes relating to employees of that class or description, and, if those conditions are satisfied in the case of both or all of those schemes taken together, they shall be taken to be satisfied in the case of each of them otherwise those conditions shall be taken to be satisfied in the case of none of them.

- (6) No approval shall be given as respects any period before 6th April 1978.

2 Discretionary approval

[P1970/24/20]

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), the Assessor may, if he thinks fit, having regard to the facts of a particular case, and subject to such conditions, if any, as he thinks proper to attach to the approval, approve a retirement benefits scheme for the purpose of this Act notwithstanding that it does not satisfy one or more of the prescribed conditions.⁶
- (2) The Assessor may in particular approve by virtue of this section a scheme —
- (a) which exceeds the limit imposed by the prescribed conditions as respects benefits for less than forty years' service, or
 - (b) which provides pensions for widows of employees on death in service, or for the children or dependants of employees, or
 - (c) which provides on death in service a lump sum of up to four times the employee's final remuneration (exclusive of any refunds of contributions), or
 - (d) which allows benefits to be payable on retirement within ten years of the specified age, or on earlier incapacity, or
 - (dd) which permits the receipt of relevant benefits by an employee while continuing to be employed by the employer but the scheme shall not permit the payment of relevant benefits before the normal retirement age under the scheme;⁷
 - (e) which provides for the return in certain contingencies of the employee's contributions, or
 - (ee) which provides for the payment to an employee of a lump sum that does not satisfy section 1(3)(d) but satisfies the early payment of lump sum conditions in section 2A, or⁸
 - (f) which relates to a trade or undertaking carried on only partly in the Island and by a person not resident in the Island, or
 - (ff) which, in accordance with regulations under subsection (5), provides in certain contingencies for the payment of trivial commutation lump sums, or⁹
 - (g) which provides in certain contingencies for securing relevant benefits (but no other benefits) by means of an annuity contract approved by the Assessor and made with an approved insurer of the employee's choice, or¹⁰
 - (h) to which the employer is not a contributor and which provides benefits additional to those provided by a scheme to which he is a contributor; or¹¹

- (i) which does not satisfy the condition in section 1(3)(d) but —
 - (i) otherwise satisfies the prescribed conditions; and
 - (ii) a lump sum under the scheme does not exceed 30% of the total value, at the time when the lump sum is paid, of the benefits for the employee provided for by the arrangements made in accordance with the scheme.¹²
- (2A) [Repealed]¹³
- (3) The Assessor shall not approve a scheme by virtue of this section if to do so would be inconsistent with regulations made for the purposes of this section.¹⁴
- (4) Regulations made for the purposes of this section may restrict the Assessor's discretion to approve a scheme by reference to the benefits provided by the scheme, the investments held for the purposes of the scheme, the manner in which the scheme is administered, or any other circumstances whatever.¹⁵
- (5) The power to make regulations for the purposes of this section shall be exercisable by the Treasury.¹⁶
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (2)(ff), regulations under subsection (4) may —
- (a) make provision for the circumstances in which a lump sum will be treated as a trivial commutation lump sum;
 - (b) specify a commutation limit;
 - (c) specify the factors to be taken into account in determining whether the commutation limit is exceeded or not.¹⁷
- (7) The Treasury may by regulations provide for the method by which the total value of the benefits for the employee may be calculated and different methods may be provided for different purposes.¹⁸

2A Lump sum to employee: conditions

- (1) These are the conditions referred to in section 2(2)(ee).
- (2) The lump sum must not exceed 30% of the total value of the benefits payable to the member at the time.
- (3) The lump sum must be payable only if the employee so elects before the date on which a pension is first payable to the employee under the scheme.
- (4) The lump sum must be payable before a pension is first payable but not in any case before the normal retirement age under the scheme.
- (5) The amount of the lump sum must be calculated as at the date on which the lump sum is payable by reference to the then known circumstances and on the assumption that the other relevant benefits are calculated and taken on that date.

- (6) Where an employee elects for a lump sum payable in accordance with this section, the other relevant benefits shall be calculated —
- (a) in the case of a defined benefits scheme, in accordance with the rules of the scheme but only after taking account of the payment of the lump sum and without further reference to the arrangements under the scheme that provide for the payment of a lump sum; or
 - (b) in the case of a defined contributions scheme, the fund available after payment of the lump sum is to be available only for the purpose of purchasing an annuity or for the withdrawal of funds in accordance with the terms of the approved scheme.
- (7) Where a lump sum is paid in accordance with this section, the scheme trustees (if any) and the scheme administrator must within 3 months of the payment of that sum give notice of the payment to the Assessor in such form and containing such information as the Assessor may require.
- (8) The Treasury may by regulations provide for the method by which the total value of benefits payable to a member may be calculated and different methods may be provided for different classes of scheme.¹⁹

2B Annual allowance

The aggregate of all contributions that a person may make in any year of assessment (whether under a single scheme or under two or more schemes) shall not exceed the annual allowance.²⁰

- (b) a sum not paid by way of an ordinary annual contribution shall for the purposes of this subsection be treated, as the Assessor may direct, either as an expense incurred in the basis period in which the sum is paid, or as an expense to be spread over such period of years as the Assessor thinks proper.
- (4) Any contribution paid under the scheme by an employee shall, in assessing income tax, be allowed to be deducted as an expense incurred in the year of assessment in which the contribution is paid, subject to section 12C.²³

5 Taxation in respect of certain schemes

[P1970/24/23]

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, where, pursuant to a retirement benefits scheme, the employer in any year of assessment pays a sum with a view to the provision of any relevant benefits for any employee of that employer, then (whether or not the accrual of the benefits is dependent on any contingency) —
- (a) the sum paid, if not otherwise chargeable to income tax as income of the employee, shall be deemed for all the purposes of the Income Tax Acts to be income of that employee for that year of assessment and assessable to income tax, and
 - (b) [Repealed]²⁹
- (2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, where —
- (a) the circumstances in which the relevant benefits under a retirement benefits scheme are to accrue are not such as will render the benefits assessable to income tax as emoluments of the employee in respect of whom the benefits are paid, and
 - (b) the provision of those benefits is not, or is not fully, secured by the payment of sums by the employer with a view to the provision of those benefits, then (whether or not the accrual of the benefits is dependent on any contingency) an amount equal to the cost, estimated in accordance with subsection (3), of securing the provision by a third person of the benefits or, as the case may be, of the benefits so far as not already secured by the payment of such sums as are mentioned in subsection (1), shall be deemed for all purposes of the Income Tax Acts to be income of the employee for the year or years of assessment specified in subsection (3) and assessable to income tax.

- (3) The cost referred to in subsection (2) shall be estimated either —
- (a) as an annual sum payable in each year of assessment in which the scheme in question is in force or the employee is serving, up to and including the year of assessment in which the benefits accrue or there ceases to be any possibility of the accrual thereof, or
 - (b) as a single sum payable in the year of assessment in which falls the date when the employee acquired the right to the relevant benefits, or the date when he acquired the right to any increase in the relevant benefits, as may be more appropriate in the circumstances of the case.

- (4) Where the employer pays any sum as mentioned in subsection (1) in relation to more than one employee, the sum so paid shall, for the purpose of that subsection, be apportioned among those employees by reference to the separate sums which would have had to be paid to secure the separate benefits to be provided for them respectively, and the part of the sum apportioned to each of them shall be deemed for that purpose to have been paid separately in relation to that one of them.
- (5) Any reference in this section to the provision for an employee of relevant benefits includes a reference to the provision of benefits payable to that employee's spouse or civil partner, surviving spouse or civil partner, children, dependants or personal representatives.³⁰

6 Exceptions from charge to tax under section 5

[P1970/24/24]

- (1) Neither subsection (1) nor subsection (2) of section 5 shall apply where the retirement benefits scheme in question is —
- (a) an approved scheme, or
 - (b) a statutory scheme.
- (2) Neither subsection (1) nor subsection (2) of section 5 shall apply for any year of assessment where apart from those subsections the employee is not assessable to income tax in respect of the emoluments of his employment.
- (3) Where, in respect of the provisions for an employee of any relevant benefits, a sum has been deemed to be income of his by virtue either of subsection (1) or subsection (2) of section 5 and subsequently the employee proves to the satisfaction of the Assessor that no payment in respect of, or in substitution for, the benefits has been made and that some event has occurred by reason of which no such payment will be made, and makes application for relief under this subsection within six years from the time when that event occurred, the Assessor shall give relief in respect of tax on that sum by repayment or otherwise as may be appropriate; and if the employee satisfies the Assessor as aforesaid in relation to some particular part of the benefits but not the whole thereof, the Assessor may give such relief as may seem to him just and reasonable.

7 Amendment of schemes

[P1971/68/22]

- (1) This section applies to any amendment of a retirement benefits scheme proposed in connection with an application for the Assessor's approval for the purpose of this Act which is needed in order to ensure that approval is so given, or designed to enhance the benefits under that scheme up to the limits suitable in a scheme for which approval is sought.
- (2) A provision, however expressed, designed to preclude any amendment of a scheme which would prejudice its approval under section 47 of the principal Act shall not prevent any amendment to which this section applies.³¹
- (3) In the case of a scheme which contains no powers of amendment, the administrator of the scheme may, with the consent of all members of the scheme, and of the employer (or of each of the employers), make in this scheme any amendment to which this section applies.

- (i) the largest sum which would have been receivable in commutation of any part of the pension if the approved scheme, or as the case may be, the statutory scheme had secured that the aggregate value of the relevant benefits payable to an employee on or after retirement, excluding any pension which was not commutable, could not exceed three-eighths of the final remuneration for each year of service up to a maximum of 40, or³²
- (ii) the largest sum which would have been receivable in commutation of any part of the pension under any rule of the approved scheme, or as the case may be, the statutory scheme authorising the commutation of part (but not the whole) of the pension, or which would have been so receivable but for the said circumstances.

- (2) Where any amount is chargeable to the tax the administrator of the scheme shall be charged to the tax on that amount.
- (3) The tax shall be at the rate of 71/2 per cent.
- (4) This section shall not apply where the employee’s employment was carried on outside the Island.

- (4) The tax shall be at the rate of 7½%.
- (5) Subsection (4) may be amended by order of the Treasury to specify a different rate of tax.

- (8) Any tax paid under subsection (7), shall be deducted from the value of the employee's funds.
- (9) The Treasury may make such regulations as are necessary for the purpose of implementing this section.

- (11) Regulations under subsection (9) shall not come into operation unless they are approved by Tynwald.³⁶

- (2) A failure by a scheme administrator to comply with subsection (1) shall —
 - (a) have the effect that the charge payable under that subsection shall be recoverable as a debt from the administrator; and
 - (b) be grounds for the withdrawal of approval.
- (3) Where the scheme administrator could not reasonably have been aware of an excess referred to in subsection (1), the charge shall be a debt due by the employee concerned in all respects as income tax due under the income tax acts at the rate of 40%.
- (4) The amount of any charge payable by an employee under subsection (3) shall be reduced by any amount paid by a scheme administrator under subsection (1).
- (5) An employee of an approved scheme may appeal to the Commissioners against a charge under this section in the same manner as an appeal against an assessment to income tax and the Commissioners may confirm, rescind or amend the charge.⁵⁵

11E Supplementary charge on unauthorised payments to or for employees

- (1) In addition to the income tax charge on a payment to which subsection 11A(1) applies if an unauthorised payment is made, the employee shall be liable to a supplementary charge determined using the formula —
$$P \times R$$
where —
“P” is the value of the unauthorised payment; and “R” is —
 - (a) in respect of an employee who is resident in the Island, the percentage equal to the prescribed rate of income tax for the purposes of section 1(2)(b) of the Income Tax Act 1970 in the year of assessment in which the unauthorised payment is made; or
 - (b) in respect of an employee who is not resident in the Island, the percentage equal to the prescribed rate of income tax for the purposes of section 1(3) of the Income Tax Act 1970 in the year of assessment in which the unauthorised payment is made.⁵⁶

- (2) The Assessor may, if he thinks fit, remit any supplementary charge or portion of a charge payable under this section.
- (3) The value of the unauthorised payment to be used for calculating the supplementary charge shall be the value of the payment prior to any deduction specified in subsection 11B(1).
- (4) The supplementary charge shall be payable to the Assessor by the payer as a debt due in all respects as if it were income tax due under the Income Tax Acts.
- (5) The supplementary charge shall be accounted for and paid over to the Assessor by the payer within 14 days of the date on which the payment is made.
- (6) Any supplementary charge paid by the payer under subsection (4) —

 - (b) shall be deducted from the payment.
- (7) The payer shall give to the employee written notice of the deduction of the supplementary charge in such form as the Assessor may approve.
- (8) The Assessor shall issue to the employee a certificate in respect of the deduction and that certificate shall have the same effect as an assessment made upon the employee.
- (9) An employee may appeal to the Commissioners against a supplementary charge under this section in the same manner as an appeal against an assessment to income tax and the Commissioners may confirm, rescind or amend the charge.⁵⁷

12 Charge to tax on repayment to employer

[P1970/24/Sch 5]

- (1) When any payment is made or becomes due to an employer out of funds which are or have been held for the purposes of an exempt approved scheme then if the scheme relates to a trade, profession or vocation carried on by the employer, the payment shall be treated for the purposes of the Income Tax Acts as a receipt of that trade, profession or vocation receivable when the payment falls due or on the last day on which the trade, profession or vocation is carried on by the employer, whichever is the earlier.
- (2) This section shall not apply to a payment which fell due before the scheme became an exempt approved scheme.⁵⁸

12A Surplus funds

Schedule 1A (which relates to surplus funds in certain pension schemes) shall have effect.⁵⁹

12B Transfer of approved scheme to pension scheme approved under section 61H of the principal Act

- (1) This section applies to a retirement benefits scheme that is approved by the Assessor for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) Despite the requirement in section 1(2)(a) that a scheme must be bona fide established for the sole purpose of providing the relevant benefits in respect of service as an employee in order for the scheme to be approved, the Assessor will allow a scheme approved for the purposes of the Act to be transferred to a pension scheme approved under section 61H of the principal Act for the purpose of allowing the member to access the funds in accordance with Part 5A of that Act, should the member so elect.
- (3) Where a member of a scheme specified in subsection (1) elects for that scheme to be transferred to a pension scheme approved under section 61H of the principal Act, the total value of the scheme that is to be transferred will be liable to a transfer fee of 10% of that total.
- (4) Any transfer fee arising under subsection (3) shall be deducted from the sum to be transferred before the transfer can take place.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (3), the total value of the scheme must be calculated as at the date on which the transfer fee is deducted, by reference to the then known circumstances.
- (6) Where an amount is liable to a transfer fee under subsection (3) —
 - (a) the fee shall be payable to the Assessor by the administrator of the scheme on the day on which the fee is deducted from the scheme; and
 - (b) on the same day, the administrator shall notify the Assessor of —
 - (i) the amount of fee paid;
 - (ii) the value of the pension scheme immediately prior to the payment of the fee;
 - (iii) the pension scheme reference number;
 - (iv) the name of the scheme;
 - (v) the scheme member's full name, date of birth and tax reference number.
- (7) When the transfer fee has been received by the Assessor, the Assessor will issue a notification to the administrator to confirm receipt.
- (8) When the administrator has received a notification issued under subsection (7), the scheme from which the fee has been deducted can be transferred to the pension scheme approved under section 61H of the principal Act.
- (9) If a scheme specified in subsection (1) is transferred to a pension scheme approved under section 61H of the principal Act —

- (a) without a transfer fee being deducted under subsection (4); or
- (b) without the administrator receiving a notification issued under subsection (7), the transfer will constitute an unauthorised payment for the purposes of sections 11A and 11E.

- (10) If an individual has made an election that has been approved under section 2ZA(3) or 2ZA(7)(b) of the principal Act and is in force and a transfer fee arises under subsection (3) in respect of a pension scheme of which the individual is a member, the transfer fee will not form a part of the income tax cap amount in section 2ZB of the principal Act as it is not a charge to income tax.⁶⁰

12C Recycling of funds withdrawn from another approved pension scheme

Where an employee pays a sum by way of contribution under a scheme and some, or all, of that sum consists of funds that have been withdrawn from a pension scheme approved under this Act, the principal Act or under the Income Tax Act 1989, section 3(4) shall not apply to the amount of the sum that consists of those funds.⁶¹

12D Reporting requirement
