ALCOHOLIC LIQUOR DUTIES ACT 1986

Received Royal Assent: 24 July 1986

Passed: 21 October 1986

Commenced: 1 April 1987

AN ACT to make provision relating to the excise duties on spirits, beer, wine, made-wine and cider; to repeal and replace certain other enactments relating to excise; and to provide for connected matters.

PART I – PRELIMINARY

1 The alcoholic liquors dutiable under this Act

[P1979/4/1]

- (1) Subsections (2) to (8) define for the purposes of this Act the alcoholic liquors which are subject to excise duty under this Act, that is to say –
- (a) spirits,
 - (b) beer,
 - (c) wine,
 - (d) made-wine, and
 - (e) cider;

and in this Act “dutiable alcoholic liquor” means any of those liquors and “duty” means excise duty.

- (2) “Spirits” means, subject to subsections (7) to (9) –
- (a) spirits of any description which are of a strength exceeding 1.2 per cent.,
 - (b) any such mixture, compound or preparation made with spirits as is of a strength exceeding 1.2 per cent., or
 - (c) liquors contained, with any spirits, in any mixture which is of a strength exceeding 1.2 per cent.¹

- (3) “Beer” includes ale, porter, stout and any other description of beer, and any liquor which is made or sold as a description of beer or as a substitute for beer and which is of a strength exceeding 0.5 per cent.
- (a) [Repealed]²
- (b) [Repealed]³
- (4) “Wine” means any liquor which is of a strength exceeding 1.2 per cent. and which is obtained from the alcoholic fermentation of fresh grapes or of the must of fresh grapes, whether or not the liquor is fortified with spirits or flavoured with aromatic extracts.⁴
- (5) “Made-wine” means, subject to subsection (10) and subsection 51B(1), any liquor which is of a strength exceeding 1.2 per cent. and which is obtained from the alcoholic fermentation of any substance or by mixing a liquor so obtained or derived from a liquor so obtained with any other liquor or substance but does not include wine, beer, [.....]⁵ spirits or cider.⁶
- (6) “Cider” means, subject to section 51B(1), cider (or perry) —
- (a) which is of a strength exceeding 1.2 per cent. but less than 8.5 per cent.,
- (b) which is obtained from the fermentation of apple or pear juice, without the addition at any time of —
- (i) any alcoholic liquor, or
- (ii) any liquor or substance which communicates colour or flavour,
- other than such as the Treasury may allow as appearing to it to be necessary to make cider (or perry),
- (c) the pre-fermentation mixture for which satisfies the pre-fermentation juice requirement, and
- (d) which satisfies the final product juice requirement.

For the purposes of this subsection —

- (i) “the pre-fermentation mixture” for cider (or perry) means the mixture of juice and other ingredients in which the fermentation from which the cider (or perry) is obtained takes place, as that mixture exists immediately before the fermentation process commences,
- (ii) if the cider (or perry) consists of a blend of two or more liquors constituting cider (or perry), references in this subsection to the pre-fermentation mixture are to the pre-fermentation mixtures for each of those liquors taken as a whole,
- (iii) the pre-fermentation mixture for the cider (or perry) satisfies the pre-fermentation juice requirement if the

- volume of apple or pear juice of a gravity(6) of at least 1033 degrees included in the mixture is a volume not less than 35 per cent. of the volume of the pre-fermentation mixture,
- (iv) the cider (or perry) satisfies the final product juice requirement if the aggregate of the volume of apple or pear juice of a gravity of at least 1033 degrees included in the pre-fermentation mixture and the volume of any such apple or pear juice added after fermentation commences is a volume not less than 35 per cent. of the volume of the cider (or perry), and
 - (v) the volume of any juice, the pre-fermentation mixture and the cider (or perry) is to be computed at 20°C.⁷
- (7) [Repealed]⁸
 - (8) Methyl alcohol, notwithstanding that it is so purified or prepared as to be drinkable, shall not be deemed to be spirits nor shall naphtha or any mixture or preparation containing naphtha or methyl alcohol and not containing spirits as defined in subsection (2).
 - (9) [Repealed]⁹
 - (10) The Treasury may by order provide that any beverage of an alcoholic strength exceeding 1.2 per cent. but not exceeding 5.5 per cent. which is made with beer or cider and is of a description specified in the order shall be deemed to be beer or, as the case may be, cider, and not to be made-wine.¹⁰

2 Ascertainment of strength, volume and weight of alcoholic liquors

[P1979/4/2]

- (1) Subject to subsections (6) and (7), this section applies to spirits, anything that would be spirits if it were of a strength exceeding 1.2 per cent., and any fermented liquor other than wash, and “liquor” shall be construed accordingly.¹¹
- (2) For all purposes of this Act —
 - (a) except where some other measure of quantity is specified, any computation of the quantity of any liquor or of the alcohol contained in any liquor shall be made in terms of the volume of the liquor or alcohol, as the case may be;
 - (b) any computation of the volume of any liquor or of the alcohol contained in any liquor shall be made in litres as at 20°C; and
 - (c) the alcoholic strength of any liquor is the ratio of the volume of the alcohol contained in the liquor to the volume of the liquor (inclusive of the alcohol contained in it);

and in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires —

“alcohol” means ethyl alcohol; and “strength” in relation to any liquor, means its alcoholic strength computed in accordance with this section, the ratio referred to in paragraph (c) being expressed as a percentage.

- (3) The Treasury may make regulations prescribing the means to be used for ascertaining for any purpose the strength, weight or volume of any liquor, and any such regulations may provide that in computing for any purpose the strength of any liquor any substance contained therein which is not alcohol or distilled water may be treated as if it were.
- (4) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (3), regulations under that subsection may provide that for the purpose of charging duty on any spirits, beer, cider, wine or made-wine contained in any bottle or other container, the strength, weight or volume of the liquor in that bottle or other container may be ascertained by reference to any information given on the bottle or other container by means of a label or otherwise or to any documents relating to the bottle or other container.¹²
- (5) Different regulations may be made under subsection (3) for different purposes.
- (6) Nothing in this section shall prevent the strength, weight or volume of beer, wine, made-wine or cider from being computed for the purpose of charging duty thereon by methods other than that provided in this section.¹³
- (7) [Repealed]¹⁴
- (8) Except as provided in subsection (9), where the quantity of alcohol contained in any spirits falls to be computed in accordance with this section on or after 1st January 1980 and the quantity of those spirits was last computed in accordance with this section before that date the following conversion factor shall be applied in making the first-mentioned computation, that is to say, one gallon of spirits at proof shall be taken to be equivalent to 2.595 litres of alcohol.¹⁵
- (9) The Treasury may, if it thinks fit in any particular case, require the quantity of alcohol contained in any spirits falling within subsection (8) to be computed in accordance with this section without applying the conversion factor specified in that subsection.¹⁶

3 Meaning of and method of ascertaining gravity of liquids

[P1979/4/3]

- (1) For the purposes of the Customs and Excise Acts 1986 —
 - (a) “gravity”, in relation to any liquid, means the ratio of the weight of a volume of the liquid to the weight of an equal volume of distilled water, the volume of each liquid being computed as at 20°C;

- (b) where the gravity of any liquid is expressed as a number of degrees that number shall be the said ratio multiplied by 1,000; and
 - (c) “original gravity”, in relation to any liquid in which fermentation has taken place, means its gravity before fermentation.
- (2) The gravity of any liquid at any time shall be ascertained by such means as the Treasury may approve, and the gravity so ascertained shall be deemed to be the true gravity of the liquid.
- (3) Where for any purposes of the Customs and Excise Acts 1986 it is necessary to ascertain the original gravity of worts in which fermentation has commenced or of any liquid produced from such worts, that gravity shall be determined in such manner as the Treasury may by regulations prescribe.¹⁷
- (4) [Repealed]¹⁸

- (4) In such a case the Treasury —
 - (a) may assess as being excise duty due from the person concerned an amount equal to the duty that would have been chargeable on the spirits if, at the time of delivery from warehouse, they had been delivered for home use and otherwise than in accordance with subsection (1), and
 - (b) may notify him or his representative accordingly.²⁵

- (4) In such a case the Treasury —
 - (a) may assess as being excise duty due from the person concerned an amount equal to the duty that would have been chargeable on the spirits if, at the time of delivery from warehouse, they had been delivered for home use and otherwise than in accordance with subsection (1), and
 - (b) may notify him or his representative accordingly.³⁰

10 Relief from duty on imported goods not for human consumption containing spirits

[P1979/4/11]

- (1) On the importation of any goods not for human consumption containing spirits as part or ingredient thereof, the Treasury may, subject to such conditions as it may think fit to impose, direct the goods to be treated for the purposes of the charge of duty on spirits (and in particular the charge under section 132 of the Management Act) as not containing spirits.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies if —
 - (a) the Treasury make a direction under subsection (1), but
 - (b) it turns out that the goods were for human consumption.³¹
- (3) In such a case the Treasury —

- (a) may assess as being excise duty due from the relevant person an amount equal to the duty that would have been chargeable on the goods if the direction had not been made, and
 - (b) may notify him or his representative accordingly.³²

Manufacture of spirits

11 Licence to manufacture spirits

[P1979/4/12]

- (1) No person shall manufacture spirits, whether by distillation of a fermented liquor or by any other process, unless he holds an excise licence granted by the Treasury for that purpose under this section (referred to in this Act as a “distiller’s licence”).
- (2) A licence granted under this section shall expire at the end of November next after it is granted.
- (3) On any licence granted under this section there shall be charged an excise licence duty of £50.³⁴
- (4) [Repealed]³⁵

12 Power to make regulations relating to manufacture of spirits

[P1979/4/13]

- (1) The Treasury may, with a view to the protection of the revenue, make regulations —

 - (b) the Treasury sees fit in the case of any person manufacturing spirits by any process other than distillation of a fermented liquor,it may direct that, subject to compliance with such conditions as it thinks proper to impose, such of the provisions of this Act relating to the manufacture of, or manufacturers of, spirits or such of any regulations made under this section as may be specified in the direction shall not apply in the case of that person.
- (5) If the Treasury so directs, spirits manufactured by a process to which a direction under subsection (4) applies shall be treated as not being within the charge of duty on spirits under section 4.
- (6) If, save as provided in subsection (4), any person contravenes any regulation made under subsection (1) or with any condition, restriction or requirement imposed under such a regulation his contravention shall attract a penalty under section 9 of the Finance Act 1994 (civil penalties), and any spirits, and any vessels, utensils and materials used for distilling or otherwise manufacturing or for preparing spirits, in respect of which any person contravenes any such regulation, condition, restriction or requirement, shall be liable to forfeiture.³⁶

 - (b) if the excess amounts to more than 1 per cent. of the quantity of alcohol lawfully brought into the place of racking since stock was last taken, such quantity of spirits as contain an amount of alcohol equal to that excess shall be liable to forfeiture, and there shall be deemed to have been conduct by the distiller attracting a penalty under section 9 of the Finance Act 1994 (civil penalties).⁴⁵

- (3) The first condition is that either —
- (a) no beer was produced in the brewery in the previous calendar year (“the previous year”), or
 - (b) the amount of beer produced in the brewery in the previous year was not more than 60,000 hectolitres.⁸⁹

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3)(b), where the brewery was in use as beer-production premises during part only of the previous year, the amount of beer produced in the previous year in the brewery shall be taken to have been —

$$\frac{A}{D} \times 365$$

where —

A is the amount of beer actually produced in the previous year in the brewery, and

D is the number of days in that part of the previous year.

- (11) Subsection (10) is without prejudice to section 175(4) of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1986 (recovery of duty unpaid by reason of untrue document or statement).⁹³

31D Rate of general beer duty for small brewery beer (other than lower strength beer) from singleton breweries⁹⁴

- (1) This section applies to small brewery beer produced in a brewery at a time in a calendar year (“the current year”) when the brewery is a singleton brewery.

$$\frac{P - 2,500}{P} \times \text{the standard beer duty rate at the time concerned}$$

where —

if this subsection applies by reason of subsection (5)(a), P is the amount, in hectolitres, of beer produced in the brewery in the previous year, and

31G Assessments where incorrectly low rate of duty applied

- (1) Subsection (3) applies if —
- (a) general beer duty is charged on any beer¹¹⁰, and
 - (b) it appears at the excise duty point that the beer is small brewery beer for the purposes of section 31(1AA), but

- (2) Subsection (3) also applies if —
- (a) general beer duty is charged on any beer that is small brewery beer for the purposes of section 31(1AA), and¹¹¹
 - (b) the rate of duty that at the excise duty point appeared to be the correct rate turns out to have been lower than the correct rate (because, for example, circumstances were not as they appeared at that point or they subsequently changed).
- (3) In any such case the Treasury —
- (a) may assess the amount that is the difference between —
 - (i) the actual amount of the general beer duty charged on the beer by section 31, and
 - (ii) the lower amount that, at the excise duty point, appeared to be the amount charged,as being excise duty due from the person liable to pay the duty charged on the beer by section 31,¹¹² and
 - (b) may notify him or his representative accordingly.
- (4) Where two or more persons are liable to pay the general beer duty¹¹³ charged on the beer —
- (a) the reference in subsection (3)(a) to the person liable to pay that duty is to any one or more of those persons¹¹⁴, and
 - (b) the reference in subsection (3)(b) to notifying the person liable or his representative is to notifying each person assessed or his representative.¹¹⁵

*Power to vary rates31H Power to vary reduced rate provisions

(2) If the contravention is deliberate but not concealed, the amount of the penalty is 70% of the maximum amount.

(3) In any other case, the amount of the penalty is 30% of the maximum amount.

(4) The contravention is —

- (a) “deliberate and concealed” if the contravention is deliberate and P makes arrangements to conceal the contravention; and
- (b) “deliberate but not concealed” if the contravention is deliberate but P does not make arrangements to conceal the contravention.

3 Reductions for disclosure

(1) Paragraph 4 provides for reductions in penalties under this Schedule where P discloses a contravention.

(2) P discloses a contravention by —

- (a) telling the Treasury about it;
- (b) giving the Treasury reasonable help in identifying any other contraventions of section 71C(1) or 71F of which P is aware; and
- (c) allowing the Treasury access to records for the purpose of identifying such contraventions.

(3) Disclosure of a contravention —

- (a) is “unprompted” if made at a time when P has no reason to believe that the Treasury has discovered or is about to discover the contravention; and
- (b) otherwise, is “prompted”.

(4) In relation to disclosure “quality” includes timing, nature and extent.

4 (1) Where P discloses a contravention, the Treasury must reduce the penalty to one that reflects the quality of the disclosure.

(2) If the disclosure is prompted, the penalty may not be reduced below —

- (a) in the case of a contravention that is deliberate and concealed, 50% of the maximum amount;
- (b) in the case of a contravention that is deliberate but not concealed, 35% of the maximum amount; and

- (2) A penalty under this Schedule must be paid before the end of the period of 30 days beginning with the day on which notification of the penalty is issued.
- (3) An assessment is to be treated as an amount of duty due from P under this Act and may be recovered accordingly.
- (4) An assessment of a penalty under this Schedule may not be made later than one year after evidence of facts sufficient in the opinion of the Treasury to indicate the contravention comes to its knowledge.
- (5) Two or more contraventions may be treated by the Treasury as a single contravention for the purposes of assessing a penalty under this Schedule.

7 Reasonable excuse

- (1) Liability to a penalty does not arise under this Schedule in respect of a contravention which is not deliberate if P satisfies the Treasury or (on an appeal made to the appeal tribunal) the tribunal that there is a reasonable excuse for the contravention.

(2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1), where P relies on any other person to do anything, that is not a reasonable excuse unless P took reasonable care to avoid the contravention.

8 Companies: officer's liability

(1) Where a penalty under this Schedule is payable by a company in respect of a contravention which was attributable to an officer of the company, the officer is liable to pay such portion of the penalty (which may be 100%) as the Treasury may specify by written notice to the officer.

- (b) the officer must pay the specified portion before the end of the period of 30 days beginning with the day on which the notice is given;
- (c) sub-paragraphs (3) to (5) of paragraph 6 apply as if the notice were an assessment of a penalty; and
- (d) paragraph 9 applies as if the officer were liable to a penalty.

(7) In this paragraph “company” means any body corporate, limited liability company or unincorporated association, but does not include a partnership.

9 Double jeopardy

P is not liable to a penalty under this Schedule in respect of a contravention in respect of which P has been convicted of an offence.
