Saving for repealed provisions

4. (1) Where immediately before any enactment is repealed by this Act any charitable trust established or regulated by any provision of that enactment was subsisting and capable of taking effect, that provision, so far as it then had effect as an instrument establishing or regulating the trust, shall continue to have effect as such, and may be varied or revoked —

- (a) by a scheme under Schedule 3, or
- (b) by the High Court in the exercise of any of its powers under the Charities Act 1962 or of its inherent jurisdiction relating to charities.

(2) The repeal by this Act of any enactment relating to any premises which on the coming into operation of the repeal comprise the parish church or a parish burial ground of a parish, or the parsonage house or glebe land of the incumbent of a benefice, or any part thereof, does not affect —

- (a) the status of those premises as such parish church, parish burial ground, parsonage house or glebe land, as the case may be;
- (b) any obligation to repair the chancel of such parish church;
- (c) the right to any pew in such parish church;
- (d) any exclusive right of burial in such parish burial ground; or
- (e) (subject to sub-paragraph (1)) any trusts affecting any fund representing the proceeds of sale of, or otherwise connected with, any such premises.

(3) The repeal by this Act of the Bishop Barrow's Charity Act 1875 does not affect any licence granted under section 9 of that Act and in force immediately before the coming into operation of the repeal; and that licence shall have effect as if it had been granted under section 2 of the Extra-Parochial Ministry Measure 1967.
