Government Circular No. 1992/0024

Alcoholic Liquor Duties Act 1986
Customs and Excise Management Act 1986

SPIRITS REGULATIONS 1992<sup>1</sup>

Approved by Tynwald: 18 February 1992
Made: 29 January 1992

In exercise of the powers conferred on the Treasury by section 94 of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1986<sup>1</sup>, sections 2, 3, 12 and 14 of the Alcoholic Liquor Duties Act 1986<sup>2</sup> and all other powers enabling it in that behalf, the following Regulations are hereby made: —

Editorial Note: This instrument, despite the repeal of the Alcoholic Liquor Duties Act 1986, is continued by virtue of article 4 of the Alcoholic Liquor Duties Act 1986 (Savings and Repeal) Order 2023 [SD 2023/0232]

PART II - APPROVAL OF PLANT AND PROCESSES AND ENTRY OF PREMISES

4 Approval of plant and processes

- (1) Before a distiller manufactures spirits he shall make application in writing or by means of an electronic communication to the Treasury for approval of the plant and processes he intends to use.<sup>22</sup>
- (2) Any application made under paragraph (1) shall be accompanied by a description of the processes referred to in it, and a description of the plant referred to in it, together with such additional information as the Treasury may require.<sup>23</sup>
- (3) No distiller shall begin to manufacture spirits until he has received the approval of the Treasury of the plant and processes referred to in his application under paragraph (1), and any such approval may be given subject to conditions.
- (4) The Treasury may for reasonable cause at any time vary or add to any conditions imposed on the approval of any plant or process, or withdraw any such approval.

5 [Revoked]<sup>24</sup>

6 Variations to plant or processes

- (1) A distiller receiving approval under regulation 4 shall ensure that any plant or process so approved is not significantly varied, altered or changed unless the variation, alteration or change is first approved by the Treasury, and any such approval may be given subject to conditions.<sup>25</sup>
- (2) Application for the approval of any variation, alteration or change to any plant or process shall be in such form and manner and shall provide such details, including a written description, drawing or model, as the Treasury may require.
- (3) The Treasury may for reasonable cause at any time vary or add to any conditions imposed on the approval of any variation, alteration or change of any plant or process, or withdrawn any such approval.

7 [Revoked]<sup>26</sup>

8 [Revoked]<sup>28</sup>

PART III - CONDUCT OF PROCESSES

9 [Revoked]<sup>29</sup>

10 Distillation periods

- (1) A distiller shall conduct his operations in separate distillation periods for each class of spirits.<sup>30</sup>
- (2) A distiller may conduct his operations so that more than one distillation period is in progress at any one time.
- (3) In respect of each batch of wort which he makes, the distiller shall specify to which distillation period it belongs, and a distillation period shall commence at the date when production of the earliest of the wort included in it commences.
- (4) Each distillation period shall end when all the wort specified to belong to it has been distilled and the feints and spirits produced therefrom have been conveyed into their receivers and account has been taken of them.
- (5) Save as the Treasury may otherwise allow, a distiller shall conduct his operations so that no distillation period exceeds one month in length.<sup>31</sup>

11 Produce of distillation periods

- (1) Save as the Treasury may otherwise allow, a distiller shall ensure that the produce of any distillation period is not mixed with any other matter until account of that produce has been taken in such manner and to such an extent as the Treasury may require.<sup>32</sup>
- (2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), before account is taken of the produce of any distillation period it may be mixed with feints of which account has been taken in any earlier distillation period.
