EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order.)

This Order amends the orders which provide for the enforcement of trade restrictions against Syria and Libya. The amendments update the orders, taking account of recent changes made to the EU Regulations imposing the restrictions. The Regulations are Council Regulation (EU) No 36/2012 of 18 January 2012 concerning restrictive measures in view of the situation in Syria (OJ No L 16, 19.1.2012, p.1) ("the Syria Regulation"), as last amended by Council Implementing Regulation (EU) No 2017/1751 (OJ No L 246, 26.9.2017, p.1); and Council Regulation (EU) No 2016/44 of 18 January 2016 concerning restrictive measures in view of the situation in Libya and repealing Regulation (EU) No 204/2011 (OJ No L 12, 19.1.2016, p.1) ("the Libya Regulation"), as last amended by Commission Implementing Regulation (EU) No 2017/1974 of 30 October 2017 (OJ No L 281, 31.10.2017, p.27).

Article 2 amends the Export Control (Syria Sanctions) Order 2013 (S.I. 2013/2012). It updates the definition of "the Syria Regulation" in that Order (such that the latest instrument amending that Regulation is referred to in that definition) and makes a number of changes to article 8 of that Order to reflect changes made to the Syria Regulation. It also provides that an offence, in connection with the purchase, transport etc. of crude oil and petroleum products, is not committed by someone who is authorised.

Article 3 amends the Export Control (Libya Sanctions) Order 2016 (S.I. 2016/787) ("the Libya Order") to address the new trade restrictions against Libya concerning goods which could be used for the smuggling of migrants and trafficking of human beings.

Article 3(3) inserts new article 5A into the Libya Order. New article 5A creates offences for evading the new trade restrictions concerning these goods i.e. engaging in the various activities described in new Article 2a(1) of the Libya Regulation, read in conjunction with new Article 2a(3) of the Libya Regulation, unless authorised.

Article 3(4) amends article 7 of the Libya Order to create new supplementary offences relating to these new trade restrictions – the offences of participating in an activity whose object or effect is to circumvent (or enable or facilitate the contravention of) the new prohibitions.

Article 3(5) makes changes to article 9 of the Libya Order, the effect of which is to provide for the penalties applicable to the new offences, and article 3(6) adds a reference to new Article 2a of the Libya Regulation to article 10(2) of that Order. Article 3(6) has the effect that persons involved in activities contravening the new restrictions are caught by certain obligations to provide information pursuant to provisions in the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979.
