agent

13. (1) The foundation rules must provide for the appointment, retirement, removal and remuneration (if any) of the registered agent of the foundation.

- (a) dies;
- (b) retires; or
- (c) otherwise ceases to act or to be able to act.

(3) Despite any provision of the foundation rules to the contrary, if the registered agent —

(2) If an object of a foundation is to carry out a specified non-charitable purpose, the foundation must have an enforcer in respect of that object.

 - (a) administered the foundation's assets; and
 - (b) acted to further the foundation's objects.
- (10) The foundation rules may give its enforcer the power to approve or disapprove any specified actions of its council.
- (11) Except to the extent that the foundation rules provide otherwise, the enforcer may sanction or authorise any action taken or to be taken by the council of the foundation that would not otherwise be permitted by the foundation rules if the enforcer considers that it is appropriate to do so.
- (12) However, the enforcer must not do so unless satisfied —
 - (a) that it is in the best interests of the foundation to do so; and
 - (b) that the council, in taking the action, acted or will be acting in good faith.

foundation
rules -

(5) The dedication of assets to a foundation by a person does not —

16. (1) The foundation rules must specify what is to happen to any assets of the foundation that remain should the foundation be wound up and dissolved.

The foundation
rules - winding up

(2) If the remaining assets of the foundation are not disposed of for any reason, a person with sufficient interest may apply to the High Court under section 51 for a direction as to the disposal of those assets.

(3) Where the foundation is dissolved, all property and rights vested in or held on trust for the foundation immediately before its dissolution are to be treated as bona vacantia and consequently vest in the Treasury in trust for the Crown and may be dealt with in the same manner as other bona vacantia accruing to the Crown under the Companies Act 1931 (including the power to disclaim title or dispose of the property or right).

- (d) the foundation is being properly administered.

(8) Subsection (5) does not affect any other obligation of a foundation to supply information about the foundation imposed by an enactment or an order of a court.

The establishment of a foundation

The Registrar
may refuse application for establishment

32. (1) The Registrar may refuse to accept an application for the establishment of a foundation if —

- (a) the Registrar considers that its proposed name contravenes section 6(2); or
- (b) a matter comes to the attention of the Registrar which leads the Registrar to consider that its proposed objects contravene section 7(2).

(2) If the Registrar does so refuse, the Registrar must inform the applicant of the refusal and the reason for the refusal.

(3) The applicant may, within 21 days of being informed of the refusal, appeal to the High Court.

(4) The High Court may order the Registrar to accept the application if it considers —

- (a) that the proposed name of the foundation does not contravene section 6(2); or
- (b) that the proposed objects of the foundation do not contravene section 7(2), as the case may be, but must otherwise confirm the Registrar's decision to refuse to accept the application.

(5) This section also applies, with necessary amendments, to any application to register an amendment to the foundation instrument of a foundation that involves a change of its name or objects.

33. The Registrar must establish a foundation if —

Establishment

- (a) the Registrar accepts an application from a class 4 licenceholder for the establishment of the foundation on behalf of a person; and
- (b) the Registrar is satisfied that the requirements of this Act in respect of the establishment of the foundation have been complied with.

34. (1) To establish a foundation the Registrar must enter in the register —

Means of establishment

- (a) the name and business address of the foundation;
- (b) its objects;
- (c) the names and residential addresses of the members of its council; and

- (d) the name and business address in the Island of the registered agent of the foundation as shown in the declaration mentioned in section 4(5), and date the entries.

(2) The Registrar must also issue the foundation with a registration number and a certificate of establishment.

(3) An entry in the register of the name of a foundation is conclusive evidence —

- (a) that, on the date mentioned in subsection (1), the foundation was established under this Act; and
- (b) that the requirements of this Act were complied with in respect of all matters precedent or incidental to the establishment of the foundation.

The effect of establishment

Nature of a foundation

35. A foundation —

- (a) is a legal person with the name specified in respect of it in the register;
- (b) is capable of suing and being sued and prosecuted in its own name; and
- (c) holds its assets for its objects.

Capacity of a foundation

36. (1) Except as provided by subsections (3) to (5), a foundation, acting through its council, is capable of exercising all the rights, powers and privileges of an individual.

(2) Accordingly, the capacity of a foundation is not limited by —

- (a) anything in the foundation rules; or
- (b) any act by a person appointed under the foundation rules.

(3) A foundation may not directly engage in commercial trading that is not incidental to the attainment of its objects.

(4) Regulations made by the Treasury under section 61(1) may further restrict the activities of foundations.

(5) Subsection (1) is subject to any restriction arising under an enactment or rule of law.

The application of laws to a foundation

37. (1) A question that arises in respect of —

- (a) a foundation; or
- (b) the dedication of assets to a foundation,

Manx law to prevail in respect of foundations

must be determined in accordance with the law of the Island without reference to the law of a jurisdiction outside the Island.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the question may be a question as to —

- (a) the capacity of the founder of a foundation to seek the establishment of the foundation or the capacity of a dedicator to dedicate assets to it;
- (b) the validity, interpretation or effect of the foundation instrument or foundation rules or of an amendment of them;
- (c) the administration of the foundation, whether it is conducted in the Island or elsewhere, including questions as to the functions, appointment and removal of a person appointed under the foundation rules; or
- (d) the existence and extent of functions in respect of a foundation, including (but not limited to) powers of amendment, revocation and appointment, and the validity of the exercise of such a function.

(3) However, subsection (1) —

- (a) does not validate the dedication of assets to a foundation with property that is not —
 - (i) owned by a founder or dedicator; or
 - (ii) the subject of a power of disposition vested in a founder or dedicator;
- (b) does not affect the recognition of the law of a jurisdiction outside the Island in determining whether a founder or a dedicator is or was the owner of property or the holder of such a power;
- (c) is subject to an express provision to the contrary in the foundation instrument or foundation rules;

- (d) does not, as regards the capacity of a body corporate, affect the recognition of the law of its place of incorporation;
- (e) does not affect the recognition of the law of a jurisdiction outside the Island prescribing (without reference to the existence of the foundation or the terms of its foundation instrument and foundation rules) the formalities for the disposition of property;
- (f) does not validate a trust or disposition of immoveable property situate in a jurisdiction outside the Island that is invalid under the law of that jurisdiction; and
- (g) does not validate a testamentary disposition that is invalid under the law of the testator's last domicile.

Exclusion of foreign law

38. (1) Neither of the following is void, voidable, liable to be set aside, invalid or subject to an implied condition because of a reason specified in subsection (3), (4) or (6) —

- (a) the establishment of a foundation; or
- (b) the dedication of assets to a foundation.

(2) None of the following is subject to an obligation or liability or deprived of a right, claim or interest arising from or under the foundation because of a reason specified in subsection (3), (4) or (6) —

- (a) a foundation;
- (b) a founder of a foundation;
- (c) an assignee of a right a founder of a foundation may have had in respect of the foundation or its assets;
- (d) a dedicator to the foundation;
- (e) a person appointed under the foundation rules;
- (f) a beneficiary under a foundation;
- (g) a third party.

(3) The first reason is that the law of a jurisdiction outside the Island —

- (a) prohibits or does not recognise foundations; or

(b) prohibits the dedication of assets to foundations.

(4) The second reason is that —

(a) the establishment of a foundation; or

(b) the dedication of assets to a foundation,

avoids or defeats or potentially avoids or defeats a right, claim, interest, obligation or liability conferred or imposed by the law of a jurisdiction outside the Island on a person as the result of a factor mentioned in subsection (5).

(5) The factors are —

(a) the existence of a personal relationship between a person referred to in subsection (4) and —

(i) a founder;

(ii) a dedicator;

(iii) an assignee of a right a founder of a foundation may have had in respect of the foundation or its assets; or

(iv) a beneficiary under the foundation; or

(b) the existence of foreign heirship rights.

(6) The third reason is that —

(a) the establishment of a foundation; or

(b) the dedication of assets to a foundation,

contravenes or potentially contravenes a rule of law or a judicial or administrative judgment, order or action of a jurisdiction outside the Island intended to recognise, protect, enforce or give effect to a right, claim, interest, obligation or liability mentioned in subsection (4).

(7) Despite any other enactment or rule of law, a judgment or order of a court of a jurisdiction outside the Island that concerns a question mentioned in section 37(1) is not —

(a) to be recognised, enforced or otherwise given effect to; or

(b) to give rise to a right, obligation or liability or raise any estoppel, if the court in giving the judgment or making the order failed to take the operation of section 37 and this section into account.

(3) Where the High Court considers that a person's interest in a foundation is sufficiently close that the person ought to be treated as a person with sufficient interest, the High Court may determine that the person is to be a person of sufficient interest for the purposes of this Act.
